

Learning objectives

This unit is focused on the use of mathematical formulae to solve practical and interesting problems. After completing this unit you should

- understand the difference between a formula and an equation
- be able to substitute numbers into formulae in practical situations
- be able to change the subject of a formula
- appreciate how formulae are used to solve practical and relevant problems.